“ So sad to hear the news of Carol's passing. She was a great friend and neighbor to my parents, Mel and Jennie. They always appreciated her visits and her homemade goodies. Carol's kindness and concern for them will never be forgotten by our family. Rest in peace, Carol.

Had I known of her service, I would have liked to be at the church. I will see Susan, Dorothy, and Glenda at our home church in Fairbank, and offer our sympathy To Carol's children and grandchildren, may your memories be Held in your heart, always!

“ Amy and family, I was saddened to read your mother's obituary in the paper. I remember the Christmas bake day when you and your sister-in-laws would get together and the wonderful goodies you would bring to VGM from that day. My sincere sympathy and prayers are with your family.

“ Carol made my wedding cake little over 50 years ago. She made the most beautiful cakes I've ever seen. And her mother made my bridesmaids dresses. She loved her family and made many good memories for many people. God bless.

“ Oh so many to share. What first comes to mind is being so excited to have sleepovers at her house. I had a special "Grandma's house" tiny suitcase for my clothes and always got to sleep in her bed. She was always singing, so I can still hear her singing "You are my Sunshine" and "I love you, a bushel and a peck". There was always a famous chocolate chip cookie to eat and "cake bellies" from her cake decorating days. She made the best ones. We read so many books. As I got older, she always wanted to hear how I was doing or feeling - she wanted to know the deep stuff, not just surface-level. Once she knew it was a grandbaby on the phone, she'd say, "Oh hi honey" and made you feel it was the best part of her day to chat with you. She was all her grandchildren's biggest cheerleader and thought we all deserved the very best and would tell us that often. We had a standing weekly coffee date in the morning these last 3 years, and for those times, I'll be forever grateful, even though the disease was so hard at the end. Her family was truly her whole world. We were so lucky to have her as a grandma and to have her love echo through the generations that will follow her.

“ Tana, that is so precious. I'm sure she looked forward to your weekly visits. I remember how much fun we all had in Mexico at your wedding. She called you her little Tanaka (sp). She will be missed by all of you.
