“ Dave , along with Dennis Hextall, were my dorm neighbors in Walsh Hall at The University of North Dakota. They were great neighbors and I thoroughly enjoyed watching them play hockey for The Fighting Sioux. Dave was a friend to everyone, didn't take himself too seriously , and had a wonderful sense of humor. Dave was often referred to as " The Duke of Dauphin " , and sometimes he would jokingly introduce himself by saying " I'm Dave Mazur-- Number eleven on your program and number one in your heart." He was a true college friend and I'm sad our paths didn't cross after college. My heartfelt sympathy and prayers go out to his family.

“ Dave Mazur was a respected man in the workplace and by his colleagues throughout Iowa. He was a “presence” in any room. A powerful man with strong convictions balanced so well with heartfelt understanding and compassion. His confidence and optimism always kept him calm and cool on the job. He was a keen listener with great common sense who could get to the heart of a matter very quickly. He used strong political savvy while always maintaining his honorable integrity. He was an excellent business writer who could communicate so clearly with a straightforward message while using the least amount of words. His business sense and judgement were impeccable. I was privileged to report to him as my supervisor for ten years. My life was truly enriched by Dave Mazur and I am thankful for all that I learned from him. My prayers are with his family.

“ So sad to hear of Dave's passing. Early in the 1970's my friends and I spent many an enjoyable evening watching a young Waterloo Blackhawks hockey team take the ice. Great times in the Cattle Congress Hippodrome. Some of those players stayed in the area and contributed to the community, as Dave did.

“ Dave and June were such wonderful people. I used to live next door to Jenna when she and Targie lived on Grand Blvd. I saw Dave and June every once in awhile when they visited. My favorite memory was the day I had family at my house the same day that Canada was playing the US. Canada won the game. Right after it was over, there was a knock at my back door. There stood Dave with this grin on his face! When I opened the door, he started singing "Oh Canada" obviously rubbing it in! I will never ever forget that or them! Rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I am your cousin whom you have not met. I know my mom was in touch with you. Mom, Auntie Marie Caruk who lives in Vancouver, BC. Judd, my mom spoke of you often. Your grandparents lived across the street from us in Dauphin when I was growing up, Your dad had already left home so we did not grow up together. I live in Phoenix and hope we can get together. My prayers are with you and your siblings and families.

“ Few people can be a true professional and great in their job as the Director of an agency while still being respected and beloved by their staff. Dave was always able to find this balance. I loved his sense of humor and his optimistic vision. He always spoke so proudly of his children and my sympathies go out to his family.

“ I feel blessed to have worked with Dave at Job Training. He was the best boss ever. Always took time to care for each of us. He spoke so proudly of his family with a smile that showed his love. Sorry for your loss, a good guy has joined the big hockey club in the sky. Rest in Peace.

“ Prayers and love are being sent to the family. I worked with Dave at Job Training and there were times he would come into the office with a black eye from playing hockey, he truly loved it and his family. I wish you fond and happy memories.

“ I lived a few doors from Dave on the same street in Dauphin. When I was 10 and Dave was 14 he was a person I looked up to. I recall him sitting on his front porch sporting the best duck tail in town and wearing leather moccasins. We all thought he was so cool. He was also a role model to us younger hockey players as we watched him play midget and juvenile hockey with such talent making it look so easy when it wasn't. Thanks Dave. I feel lucky to have known you at that impressionable time of my life. ... Bill Buckwold
