“ I remember when I started working at Claassen's. Don was shocked when I told him that I don't know how to make coffee and said that I was missing out on God's special nectar. I just laughed and said that it would mean there was more for him. I know one thing, when he retired, our coffee supply seemed to last a lot longer! haha. I always remember him greeting me in the morning. He would come out of his office when I got to work and always say, "Good Morning, Denise, How are you?" He always stopped to listen if I had an interesting night that I wanted to share with him. But one thing he did to me, (well ok maybe not just me, but I was the one dealing with it) He would have me type up legal descriptions and it would be full of abbreviations that was his system only! haha I would have to stop and ask him what they were until he finally gave me a cheat sheet! Thanks for giving me that cheat sheet after struggling for a while! lol I think he did that on purpose just to mess with the "new" girl. Don, you will be missed! I enjoyed getting to know you and you will always be remembered. My condolences goes out to Jan and the kids, grandkids and great-grandchild. It was a beautiful celebration of your life today. (btw, I still don't know how to make coffee, but i am sure you have a cup in one hand, served by an angel and a fishing pole in the other hand, just kicking back and relaxing with your loved ones that were there to greet you).

“ I feel privileged to have known Don. For pipeline surveys, I turned to Don numerous times for assistance - many times the situation was very challenging. Don ALWAYS came through with not only a workable solution, but also a more professional outcome than I could've expected. I enjoyed working with him . . . and always enjoyed sharing a laugh with him. I'll miss him for sure.

“ Janet,
I was so surprised to hear of Don's passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
Please feel free to call any time you need someone to be with, listen, just share a cup of coffee. Don was loved by so many and will be missed. Again, may God continue to give each of you strength and peace throughout the coming weeks.

“ Don was an integral part of who I am, who I've always wanted to be. He loved me as his own child. Though years passed, and time got away.

“ I have known Don since childhood when Lucille and her sister's gathered frequently at our grandparent's home or one home or another for dinner and to celebrate birthdays. During those early years their husbands and children dutifully came along and it was always a noisy, enjoyable occasion. Don and Roger Juhl were the oldest of the cousins which seemed to automatically make them partners and ringleaders in the mischief and pranks played on their younger brothers and cousins. Being the only girl for a considerable time, I hung out with the women in the house. But I learned of those activities from my own brother, Butch. As the years passed and we all outgrew our childhood, Don grew up and became a very pleasant person whom I always looked forward to seeing, with his wife Janet, at family gatherings. I am so glad they continued to keep in touch and celebrate family over the years. I am so happy to have been a cousin of Don's. He has been a very special part of our family and we will miss him very much. ---- Leona (Petey) Livingston
