“ Dorothy's Family,

Dorothy was my matron of honor for my wedding. I took her to Indiana with me. She was a good friend. She told me more then once how she had been blessed with a wonderful life filled with family and good friends. Dorothy was a good person and it was a joy to have her for a friend. Our Condolences,

“ Nola and Jerry and family,

We have so many memories of having the Ed and Dorothy Brown family as farm neighbors. Our families were friends (and school mates) in a close neighborhood and small community.

We saw Dorothy several times since she left Wessington and she always had the same joyful and welcoming smile; no matter what issues she may have been facing.

She is thought of with much fondness. So sorry for your loss.

“ Dorothy and Harold were great friends of my parents. I remember many John Deere birthday parties with all their friends. My son Leonard dubbed her Brownie when he was a toddler. Wonderful lady. It was always great to see her.

“ Dorothy was an ever-smiling, often-laughing, comforting presence in my youth, and —though I moved away and missed her—also in my adulthood, as a close friend of my parents, David and Bette Lewis

There is such greatness in people who accomplish it not by one great or heroic act, but by a lifetime of giving and caring. Dorothy was one of those people, and I'm blessed to have known her.

You can bet I'm going to make a donation to my local Austin, Texas library in her name!

Sincerely,
Dale Whiteaker-Lewis
