“ ROY and Lois were neighbors to my parents(Merv and Mary Sells 3015 Dallas Drive) while I was growing up and after I married.They were so supportive of our family as my parents went through illness and shared in happy occasions also. After my dad’s death, Lois and Mom walked often after dark looking forward to the night before garbage day so the could pick up discarded treasures that they could redo. Roy would just smile and shake his head when Lois would return and tell him about their adventure. He took great pride in taking care of their yard and home. He was dedicate to Lois their entire time together. He was a man of great character and was admired by all that knew him. Unfortunately, I am fighting cancer now. I had a treatment yesterday so today is not a good day for me to go out. However, I did want to share my memories and my condolences to you and your family.
Love to all of you, Larry and Sandy Bass

“ I worked as a secretary for Roy at Allen Hospital for several years. I had great admiration for him. He was a true gentleman. After moving to Eau Claire, WI, I met Bob Dawson who worked with Roy at a radio station in his earlier career. May he Rest In Peace with his beautiful wife.
