“ Not sure why I thought about George, but I decided to look him up. I worked with George for a number of years while at UNI. He was extremely talented, and always had a good spirit. You are missed for sure.

“ Worked with George at UNI back in the late 80's. We became instant friends. Amazing personality and a huge heart. Excellent at his craft. Had one of the best music systems I have ever heard. This earth lost a beautiful Spirit that I know is still burning brightly up above. Gonna miss ya pal....but will never forget you or your key phrase!
RIP Friend!!!!

“ The Cedar Valley lost a tremendous creative talent with George's passing. I worked beside George for 30 years at UNI and his creative influence molded much of what you see at UNI and will see for years to come. A talented guy with a wonderful personality. “ George, I recently went to pass along the death notices of a couple of former colleagues from MSU...and discovered you had passed in October. I'm afraid at some point I lost track and it is regretful. I enjoyed your dedication and talent at MSU. Sadly, I never took the time to visit your digs at UNI. Our visits to Neocon in Chicago were our opportunities to catch up once I had moved to Louisville, KY. You always spoke fondly of your UNI friends and those who were former MSU people such as the Dino Curris and Bill Lew and their spouses. I know you were happy there and also loved visiting the beaches of Florida. I always hated your favorite term and but never questioned its origins, but it was all yours.

You are missed, my friend.
