“ Lori, Pam and Wynn,

RIP Coach! I, also, had the pleasure to be a member of Coach Jennett's UNI track team's in the 60's.....and upon graduation the Silver Fox invited me to stay on as his graduate assistant....what a treat to learn from this consummate coach, husband and father! His UNI office door was always open to all and his warm and inviting home was always a special place to be with his family and to share thoughts and ideas for the future. As time went on and I came back to UNI for the renaming of a meet in Jack's honor it was obvious as to the numbers of people that he had touched and influenced over the years. Coach Jennett was a man that I revered and I will never forget! God Bless and R.I.P. Coach Jennett

“ Jack and Myrna were wonderful neighbors on 12th Street. Very friendly and very willing to extend my family every neighborly courtesy. This included letting my daughter's use their outdoor swing, letting me add to Jack's large yard waste burn pile back when was okay to burn and even giving us a pheasant a time or two, We enjoyed their dog Tootsie and seeing Jack take her on long walks. We miss Jack and Myrna. We offer the family our best wishes and condolences at the time of Jack's passing. What a long and productive life! Dick, Peggy and Leah Broadie

“ My condolences to the Jennett family. Coach was a very special person to have as a coach!! Very patient with young adults and their crazy ways at times during the 1960's. I grew up in Schaller and his brother Russ was part of the recruiting process, with coach , for me to attend SCI/UNI from 1965 to 1969, participating in both basketball and track and field. He had that quiet way of getting his point across!!! Again my sympathy to the family. Ken Huelman

“ Loved Coach Jennett! He was a mentor and someone I used often for information as I progressed in my coaching career! Always had a smile for you whenever our paths would cross and always loved seeing his former athletes! My very best and condolences to the Jennett family! Dick Miller UNI '64-'69

“ To the Jennett Family and his many friends and former athletes:
We have all lost a bright light in our lives. Jack was a special person to all of us. I especially know family was perhaps Jack's greatest delight. He loved you all so very much. When he and I would visit, inevitably the subject of family would come up, and he would light up and always have stories to tell me about his kids and especially all his grandkids. His very special partner, Myrna, were together such great role models for my wife and me, and we will always remember them together. I am happy for Jack that he is home now with Myrna.
As one of Jack's athletes and also one of his graduate assistants, I had a great bond with Jack...I was probably in his office everyday for 5 years. I was lucky the day I decided to come be part of Jack's program and a true program it was. He cared about all his athletes regardless if they were his Varsity squad or his walk-ons getting a college experience to make them a better coach down the road. His love for Track and Cross Country was obvious, but he was a true sportsman, who used the athletic field to teach much more than just the sports he coached. Jack, for me, was more than "Coach" or the "Silver Fox". He guided and nurtured me into becoming a young man, with a few bumps along the way, but his love and acceptance of me and many others was genuine and will never be forgotten. God bless you, Coach.

“ To the Jennett family; I was so sorry to hear of Jack's passing. While at UNI homecoming two weeks ago, I was able to visit and say goodbye and thanks to a remarkable man. There is no way one could ever appropriately thank a person who was a coach, teacher, advisor, professional mentor and friend. I can still remember the day some 57+ years ago when I walked into his office to ask about "what was cross country?" and thus began my fond memories of knowing Jack and being a recipient of his encouragement, advice and mentorship. Every time I meet up with others who first knew Jack as "coach". we always comment how much Jack influenced our lives. He touched so many lives in such a positive way. I extend my condolences to all of the family at this time. In the years ahead, may you cherish the memories of your departed loved one.

“ Lori, Wynn, Pam and family.
We're so sad to hear of our great friends passing. We've been so close to Jack and Myrna over the many years since our Drake days, that like losing a brother. Several years ago Jack and Myrna sent us a picture we have always displayed in our library. This ia how we prefer to remember. Love and condolences. Pat and Mary.
