“ I have many memories of working for Jim and Phyllis at Carolyn's - at three locations. Jim encouraged me to always learn more and I appreciated his expectations for excellence. I often think of those days while spending hours at my old, original Viking.

God comfort you as you deal with your loss.

“ We came to Western Home about 13 years ago and immediately found that Jim was a person we liked to be around. He was always fun and shared both his advise and his wood with myself in the service of Western Home.

“ I knew the entire family when they came to Dike Comm. School. Karol is a dear friend and we shared many hours together in HS. I remember going canoeing with her near the family farm on the Upper Iowa. Jim convinced me to buy my first Viking sewing machine and I fell in love with it. They gave me such encouragement to try anything, eventually, even my own wedding dress. I spent a lot of time at “Carolyn’s”. The machine is old. But our oldest granddaughter spent part of a week this summer learning to sewing on it. It brought lots of memories back to me. Jim and Phyllis taught their children to respect and care for others. Their influence on me directed my major in college and gave me such meaning to it throughout my life. I am forever grateful for Jim and Phyllis.
