“ I did not learn of Bill's passing until the most recent ITAG newsletter came out. I have been retired for 7 years and not in touch with my GT colleagues very much.

Bill was such a dynamic leader in gifted ed during the 1980's and 1990's. I attended ConTag at UNI that he facilitated. He was the final okay when I submitted my credentials for the TAG endorsement that was part of my Master's license.

He was warm and had a great sense of humor. I appreciated all his work for TAG and other students.

My sympathies,
Jean Saveraid

“ Mr Waack meant so much to me in High School, and really helped me blossom through Drama and helped me win a scholarship in Drama that led to my Carter in Tgeatre and Television. He was a true mentor to his students.

“ I treasure my years of friendship with Bill. We were theater buddies back in our ISTC days. The wonderful characteristics that all of these people who have written about him here have remembered were a part of him then. We all loved and enjoyed Bill, and Bill let us know that he loved and enjoyed us. What a blessing. My condolences to his family and to his many friends. Margaret Logan Willoughby

“ My greatest memory of Dr. Waack was when he allowed me and several classmates to do a rewrite of Shakespeare's Julius Ceasar, which we called Ceasar's Seizure. He was so supportive, allowing us space to grow. He was a former influence and a favorite teacher of mine. Good night, sweet prince, and flights of angels song thee to thy rest.

“ I would like to share a memory back to 1946 when I met my young brother-in-law, Bill.
There I found a true friend. The three of us, my husband Richard, Bill and myself, started college life in Cedar Falls .we were there until the fall of 1949. We shared a love for raising flowers. We Discussed his love of the theater and I encouraged him to become involved. He was indeed a remarkable person. Late years

I did not get to see him but I am sure he remained the same. he was truly loved by all of us; his brother, Richard, our sons Richard, Matt and Timothy; his sister-in-law, Nina.

“ Dear Beryl and family,
Heaven has gained such a special gentle soul, and he will be missed by all who ever met him. His contagious smile, twinkling eyes and enthusiasm for life - everyone loved him. Bill was such a support for Tom and Tom had Bill read and correct every speech and article he ever wrote.
Every Christmas as I trim my tree, I hang the many beautiful ornaments that the two of you gave Tom and me - always with special memories.
Keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers - God Bless You Jane Switzer

“ Bill was my mentor and friend who was incredibly creative, witty, and positive. Bill invited me to adjunct at UNI in gifted education courses, which I taught along side his guidance. Bill was a leader in Iowa's gifted education early movement serving on the state board and well as co-chairing CONTAG, which was a week-long conference on talented and gifted hosted by UNI. Bill always infused the fine arts and fun into this wonderful event. His impact was great among educators and students. His friendly smile will be missed; his legacy lives.

“ Dr. Waack was my advisor and mentor during my masters program in gifted education at UNI....but also one of my favorite people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. He was a great man and an intellectual giant....dedicated to helping others, funny, and just had an incredible way of making you stretch your thinking with warmth and enthusiasm. He had a way of bringing out the best in everyone he met. He loved his students and followed their progress...when I graduated with my PhD, Dr. Waack attended my graduation celebration and gave me a beautiful desk placard that read "Dr. Jill Nooren" and it sits on my desk to this very day. I was quite literally talking about him the other day....he will be missed.

“ My sincere condolences to Bill’s family. I had worked with Bill at UNI when I first began my career at the university. He was so generous, kind, and thoughtful in his words. When he retired he left such a positive imprint from his work, his caring approach to students and colleagues, and his gentle and kind demeanor. I feel very privileged to have known him and had the opportunity to work with him.

“ My prayers are for your comfort, Beryl. Bill was a great scholar and teacher. He was a fine, sensitive man, who made a difference to his students both in the high schools where he taught and at the University of Northern Iowa. His work in teacher education was impressive. Many, many people benefited from his careful, thoughtful teaching and scholarship. I always enjoyed our conversations. He was a good Christian. He was a good friend.
