

Agnes Stevens

October 17, 1906 - September 16, 2005

Agnes Christensen was born October 17, 1906, in Grays Lake, Illinois to Anton and Christiana (Nielsen) Christensen. She had two brothers, Henry and Herman and a sister, Clara Mecklenberg. As a family, they had gone to Denmark to visit her parent's homeland.

Agnes married Arthur M. Stevens on March 25, 1936, in Chester, Iowa. Agnes and Arthur lived on a farm near Chester. They had two children, Gladys Emily and Darryl Edwin. They sold their farm in 1957 and moved to Cedar Falls, Iowa. Arthur preceded her in death in 1976 after 40 years of marriage.

Agnes then moved to Indianola, Iowa to live near Gladys. In 1990, Gladys, Cliff and Agnes moved to Phoenix, Arizona. Later, Agnes moved to Idaho Falls, Idaho to live with Darryl.

Agnes was always a home maker and loved to cook. Her family and friends enjoyed her homemade bread, cinnamon rolls and angel food cakes.

Agnes is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Gladys and Cliff Pettengill of Sun City, AZ, son and daughter-in-law, Darryl and Judy Stevens of Idaho Falls, Idaho; four grandsons; one granddaughter; seven great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Agnes died Friday, September 16, 2005, at her son's home in Idaho Falls, Idaho. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; brothers, Herman and Henry; sister; Clara Mecklenberg; and grandson, Donald.
