“ My favorite memory of Amiee was when she came to Colorado Springs. She had this presence that made people turn their heads to get a glimpse of her. She was tall and tan and wore just a little makeup yet her very being demanded people to stare in awe. But her beauty was not just skin deep. She would stop to smell a flower and listen to a bird sing. She was beautiful inside and out. I loved seeing her with Michele and the love they shared as mother and daughter. Watching them together showed how powerful a mothers love is for a child, at any age. My prayers go out to the family, especially my dear friend Michele. I am so sorry for the pain and doubts that you are going through. But as a outsider I can say Aimee was loved and supported and she was blessed to be surrounded by people who loved her as much as her family did. Now that her soul is free she can finally allow herself to accept the love that was given so freely.

“ *Rest in Peace Aimee, May the road rise up to meet you,
May the wind be ever at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face and the rain fall softly on your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the hollow of his hand.
