“ Jane, Jim, and Adam,
You selected the perfect photo of AJ. It captures his warm, friendly, and inviting personality and reminds me of visiting with him in David and Kathie's yard. AJ always had a smile and a quick story to tell. My heart breaks for you.

“ I've known Alex for the past 7 years through North Star and have heard so many stories through the years. He introduced me to a lot of my first consumers - I will always remember the joy and reactions to the way he would poke fun and laugh with them. Not to mention, ALL THE STORIES! Outside of work we'd bond over nerd culture (Star Wars), new movies, and guilty pleasure tv shows (Parks and Rec). He'd always have a clip from The Office ready on his phone to show me since I never got around to watching it yet, or a random meme that he'd have to explain to me. And MORE STORIES! Alex's love for his family was undeniable; he always wanted to be the best son he could be, and had a best friend in his brother & I know that love was reciprocated. You could always count on Alex being there, in some shape or form. And he will always live on in our hearts, memories, and through our stories

“ I worked with Alex for several years at North Star. He welcomed me right away and was always willing to help, which always meant so much to me. My heart truly goes out to his family and all who knew him. He was such a good person, kind and giving, who was passionate about what he was doing. Even before I knew him well I could tell right away how much he loved what he was doing. Whenever we would get to talking he'd often talk about his brother and his parents, it was beautiful to hear the love he had for his family. You will be missed Alex, you made an impact on so many peoples lives.

“ Alex gained a spot in our hearts quickly. He did SCL services for our daughter most weeks and about mid-week she would start asking for him. He understood our daughter's humor and quirkiness and often let us know how much he appreciated the time he spent working with her. We will miss you Alex and our heart aches for the sudden loss. We send comfort, love and prayers to your family, friends, consumers, and co-workers.

“ So many memories....but one of my favorites is when he would come "home" to our daycare for lunch from kindergarten, talking a blue streak (of course!). After about 10 minutes I would say to him, "AJ, no more talking until you have eaten your lunch. " It was tough, but he could be quiet long enough to finish his sandwich and fruit. :) We are heart broken for you, Jane and Jim and Adam, and for ourselves , and for his friends and all the clients who loved him. That sweet , fat little baby turned into an even sweeter man. Enjoy the peace and beauty of heaven, AJ. We will see you again when we get there. (And then you can talk all you want. We will have the time.)

“ Sending my condolences to the Seeley family. I never met Alex, but seeing the way Adam's face lit up whenever he spoke of him showed all of us just how special he was. May your memories of him be a blessing.
