

Alice Davis

May 1, 1915 - July 22, 2013

Alice Maurine Davis (1915-2013)

WATERLOO- Alice Maurine Davis, 98, of Waterloo, formerly of Delta, Iowa, died Monday, July 22, 2013 at Parkview Nursing and Rehab Center.

She was born May 1, 1915, in Tioga, Iowa, daughter of Oattie and Ada Faye (Warrick) Armstrong. She married Guy C. Davis on May 1, 1937 in Kingston, Missouri. He died April 7 1964. She married Peter J. Bronkema on January 18, 1969 in Clinton, Iowa and they later divorced.

She earned her BA degree in Elementary Teaching and Library Science and was a teacher and librarian in public schools, retiring in 1985.

Survived by: a daughter, Allaire (Warren) George of Waterloo; and nine grandchildren.

Preceded in death by: a stepson, Jack Davis; four brothers, Maurice, Harold, Lloyd and Robert Armstrong; and a sister, Maxine Upton.

Private graveside services will be held at Cedar Township Cemetery, Fremont, Iowa.

Tribute Wall

BD

“ Even knowing the outcome is for the best is difficult. I always enjoyed your mother when we were all a lot younger.

Bettie Downey - October 15, 2013 at 03:34 PM

HA

“ Aunt Alice was a kind a loving sister to my father, Harold L Armstrong Sr. I especially remember her kindness and love of reading. She will be reunited with my father in heaven and her memory will remain with us on earth through her kindness.

Hal Armstrong - October 15, 2013 at 03:34 PM