“ Rest In Peace Andrew. My condolences to the family. I was Andrews Physical Therapist a few years back. He was a very sweet gentleman. Didn't always want to do his exercises but that was ok.

“ As a youth director at St. John from 2003-2007, I got into trouble more times with Andy than I'd like to admit. I knew he cared about my success, though and he knew I didn't want to destroy the ENTIRE building, even though it probably felt like that many days. I often think of the lessons I learned from Andy, including how to clean a coffee machine with vinegar, how to repair holes in drywall. I'm so happy to have known him. Rest in peace, friend.
