“ Brock and Joy,

Please know that we are thinking of you two during this sad time. Aunt Angie was a wonderful person who has done so much for me over the years. I have not only wonderful memories of talks and stories, but also beautiful artwork that both she and Uncle Glenn created for me. She had a wonderful laugh that I can still hear each time I think of it...and the way she used to start all her stories with "Now Sara....."!! She was truly a special person! God be with you.
