“ I was very saddened when I saw Mrs Aikey's passed away. I immediately though back to the BMX days on Burton Avenue. Her passion for the sport and the constant support of both Jamie and Kris as they competed. She always had a smile that could cheer up the most down person. My thoughts and prays go our to your family in this time and I hope that we will all remember that smile during this time.

“ Scott and I were surprised to hear of Anne's death and would like to offer our sincere sympathy. I lost my mom a few years back at the age of 68 also. Mom's are special and it is a difficult time, however the pain of loss does ease off somewhat as time goes on. You are all in our prayers. Scott & Deb (Osborn) Frost

“ Please accept my sympathy at this difficult time. I was a classmate of both Ann and Jim. I have very vivid memories of the two of them walking the halls of CFHS. It's so very hard to lose your lifelong mate, parent and grandmother. Look to the Lord for strength and understanding to see you through this. From Veronica (Schlimmer) Long.
