“ I sit here not sure how to even start this. Though I never got to meet this littlest Carlson just knowing all the rest of you tells me that she was a very lucky little girl. Your family is a blessing to each other and to all that know you. I am so sorry to find out about your loss but know that God has a greater plan for all of us that we will ever understand. Annette was blessed to be given to such a wonderful loving, caring family and you were all blessed to know, care and love her while she was here. I also know that as sad as this is you will all love each other through it and be stronger in your faith for it. Please know that all of you are loved and thought of today and for the next several days to come. May you be surrounded by God's love as you feel it through others and from Him directly. Sending my love to all of you and hugging you with my words. De Kane

“ *My Deepest Sympathies! Thank you for sharing Annette with us!
She is such a sweetheart. Love her hair.
I will forever remember the joy of holding her.
May God send your family peace and comfort.*
