“ Inger--so sorry to read of Arne's passing. He was always such a happy, welcoming guy, and Dave and I always liked him. Hadn't seen you guys for many years, since I left Hansen, but wanted you to know I am thinking of you. Jan Kittelson

“ *To Inger and family;
Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the passing of Arne! It has been a long time, however, my memories of Arne at Hansen school when he came for conferences, a coffee or school activity are all fond. He was a happy go lucky man who loved his family and lived to fulfill their needs. May the blessings of God be with you at this sad time.*

“ I have great memories while serving as pastor in Cedar Falls of Arne and all of you his family. Memories of Sunday morning visits after church, meetings after Wednesday night Bible study at Village Inn, and coffee times Inger at your home with great meals and fellowship. Praying with you and for you as you celebrate Arne's arrival into heaven as you mourn his loss on this earth. God is our refuge and strength a very present help in times of trouble therefore we don't have to fear.
