“ Curt, Doug and Larry,
Part of being one of the older cousins - THE oldest now - is that you always seem like kids in my mind. So thanks for the great picture of the three of you 'all grown up' with Uncle Art.

You're right, this is the time to share and give thanks for the good times and the great person your Dad is. IS - because he'll always be alive in your hearts and minds. ALIVE - just as he is now with my Dad, Lil, and Ernie, Ivah and all those who have been waiting to receive him.

Christmas would not have been the same on Washington Street without Art's Santa Claus OR the reading of Luke's nativity.

Thanks again for bringing back to mind the laughter. Your Dad's laughter could fill a house, a church, a concert hall or any other place he happened to be when something struck him as worthy of a laugh. And nobody could hug like Art. He just sort of wrapped you into himself, and if he was laughing at the time you were in for a ride.

I remember impromptu quartet singing, sometimes after an afterglow and sometimes just because there were enough parts present to have a go! The doors to your home were always open and there was always a welcome inside.

*Although Art's gone home into God's loving arms, he'll never be forgotten. He planted seeds of love, faith and joy that will continue to bear a fruitful harvest forever. May God continue to bless and comfort all of you and us as He did & continues to bless Art.
With love and prayers.*

“ *Thanks to all for all your thoughts and Prayers. Curtis you hit a Home Run or in Hockey terms that was a Hat Trick dude. Dad always had a story about his adventures and travels. Even on our last trip up to Larry's for his Barbershop show in August, he had to tell me about his paper delivery to all the farm homes in the area of Shell Rock, Plainfield, Nashua where he went off of a slick winter road. Dad and his Mom had to get pulled out of the ditch by a farmer and were back on there way to delver the rest of his papers. I will really miss all of those great stories. I know the time has come to Celebrate the life of our Dad (Grandpa) (Great Grandpa)

“ I had the opportunity of working with Art in the accounting office of Nielsen, Kamienski and Company for several years. I have also seen him weekly at NewAldaya Lifescapes meeting with friends on Main Street. He always had a friendly greeting, a smile, and positive attitude. It has been such a blessing to know him and I will treasure the memories he has left with me for life. My sympathies and prayers to his family. He will be missed by many. Kathy (Cyril) Klein

“ Art my father is a amazing Christian, I know where dad is right now he's been reunited with his bride and his best friend, my mom Ivah.

My lord and savior has welcomed him home with arms of joy.

I have story I would like to share. Growing up I was much closer to my mom, she understood my hardheaded ways and spastic nature. Mom and dad told my they were hoping for a lil girl, in fact I was going to be named flora after someone on the fritz side. So as a kid I really enjoyed doing all of those things mom did, cooking, canning, sewing and other passions my mom had.

Then my dad introduced me to woodworking and I was hooked. I can't even under stand how difficult it was for dad to have the patience's to teach me how to cut a board on a table saw, or turn wood on the lay. That was Art Lund and how he served people he was always patient and truly cared about people and what was going on with them

Dad was a man I wanted to get to know better and that happen when my path in life got rocky. I moved in with him with my mental baggage and all and I got to know Art Lund. Going to church, attending garden club and getting my feet back under me. I really got to share my bride with him and her 3 girls. They became his grand kids on the spot and that's how he's always embraced my blended family. Whether it's Doug and Jenny's boys or my kids they were all GODs children to Dad.

Arthur Lund will be missed by so many people that he touched, I will celebrate his life, I think my dad is the definition of GRACE.

I will never forget you dad.

That was beautiful Curt and you are absolutely correct he IS the definition of GRACE. I was trying think of how to describe him but you have summed him up in one word. He always had a special place in my heart. His smile, wit and laughter were infectious. What a kind and gentle soul. He WILL truly be missed. Hugs and love to all the Lund family.....
