“ So sorry for your loss. We had many fun times together during high school. My parents, Belle and Dave Guralnik and grandparents, Fanny and Sam Diamond also knew her mother, Chris, when she was a young woman. My thoughts are with your family. Judi Ingis

“ Barbara's quick wit and humor will be missed. All of the family gatherings at her and Tom's house over the years will provide us with memories to keep for a lifetime. I remember the summers spent at the Beck house, Uncle Louie, Aunt Chris, Linda and Jennifer, my cohort in crime. A big warm piece of my childhood. As a teenager, Barbara was my beautiful older cousin. The Beck family visited us for the Seattle World's Fair in 1962. She bought her wedding dress at the Bon Marche in Seattle during that visit. The summers spend at lake side cabins, Tom & Barb with baby, Scott. I was 18 and the world was full of fun and expectations. I believe that was yesterday.
