“ I worked as a cashier at the metro mart and Barry would come in everyday and give me a hard time. I loved his laugh and his smile. He always had something funny to say. After I quit working there . I would still go in there as a customer and he would talk to me every time I would see him. He is going to be missed by many people.
Especially his humor. Sending my deepest sympathies to Sharon, and Mike. And other family members.
