“ *Bev was my babysitter in Waterloo between 1960-1965.
I have memories of watching superman on black & white tv eating mac and cheese.
The kids and I would run around with towels made into capes.
Good times !
I'm sorry for your loss,

“ Dear Mike/Connie, Joe/Marcia, and all Bev's dear family,

We were so saddened to hear the news of Bev's passing. Whenever we visited Wayne & Michele, she was always so kind and gracious to us. We loved talking with her. I remember when I helped Wayne and Michele move to Iowa in 1975, Bev and Harry had us over for dinner and this California girl ate her first squirrel.

Bev will truly be missed by all. She joins many loved ones gone before, including Harry, Wayne, and my dad, Eric. They are all worshiping the Lord and enjoying their Heavenly rewards. We will be praying for each of you.

Love, Jeff and Lavonn Bormuth (Michele's sister)
