Although I haven't seen Brian in many years, who can forget a guy like him! Growing up - as young friends, we worked, hunted, and played together. My deepest sympathy to the Waechter Family. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ Doug and I are sending thoughts and sympathy to all of the Waechter family. We have so many memories of playing in the old hood with him and then on the "hill" and as adults camping , canoeing, sausage making. Please know we will be remembering him with smiles in our hearts from all the great memories we have.

“ Pudge, Bob, Bev, Becky, Barry, Barb and Brenda,

I have such awesome memories of all of you growing up in our neighborhood, the best neighborhood ever! Hide and seek, kick the can, baseball games, sitting out on your picnic table behind your house and coloring for hours, playing games, cards, trick or treating. I could go on forever. My heart is breaking for each of you right now.

Love and hugs,
