“ Most of us have lost parents and others who are very dear to us. For me that includes the beautiful lady in the first picture, Buelah Stock who we lost this past week. She and my Mom were best friends and so dear to our entire family and so many others. Now, if you knew Buelah, you knew that she loved to crochet and was what I would consider a master at it. So if I was ever invited to a baby shower for you, you most likely received one of Buelah's beautiful crocheted baby afghans from me. In addition to that, she also did something very special for me. She had found a pattern for a girl's baptism outfit that she wanted to crochet but she didn't have any granddaughters or great granddaughters at that time. She had since been blessed with two beautiful great granddaughters. So she asked my Mom if she thought it would be okay with me if she made it for my daughter Jessica to wear for her baptism on Easter Sunday in 1994. Well it wasn't just okay. It was an honor, and what made it even more special was that she and her husband Bud, who was also one of my Dad's closest friends and who passed away 3 years ago, made sure to attend the Easter morning service in which she was baptized in the beautiful dress, bonnet, booties and afghan that Buelah had made for her. Finally, so that you can see the love she put into everything she did for others, here are pictures of my daughter Jessica in her baptism outfit and my granddaughter Ava taking a nap with one of Buelah's beautiful baby afghans keeping her warm. 💜

“ My deepest sympathy to Buelah's family. I have fond memories of Uncle Ralph and Aunt Minnie. Especially when you all lived across from Grandma DeVore and Uncle Ken. It's been a while, but we used to see you at Wal Mart or Blaine's. You never changed. Fly high, my dear cousin.
