“ I was so sorry to learn of Camilla's death. Like so many others, I met Camilla at the Red Cross Center when she was volunteering. She was always so cheerful. We had a common bond when she found out I was from Finchford and a former neighbor of her good friend Ruth Benton. Each time I went to the blood center, I looked forward to Camilla being there and our visit. I last saw her at my January appointment.
Your family is in my prayers. May you have peace in knowing the happiness Camilla spread to others.
