“ My deepest condolences to Mrs. Wallsteadt and the Wallsteadt family. My name is Craig Nystrom and I worked with Carl at Exxon Chemical in Lake Zurich, IL for eight years. I was assigned to Carl's team and he was just so very kind and welcoming, and Carl always had some humorous story, anecdote's and was just such a kind and personal man that he made and helped all those long shifts and days easier and time to go by faster. As he was an Army veteran and me a Navy veteran, so we always took fun jabs about the other people who had never volunteered to serve our country as we always shared our experiences in our nation's military. I had run in to Carl at Sam's club years after he and I had both left this plastics company, and he and I were able to get together for lunch the last time that I saw Carl. Carl was having some health issues and myself battling cancer, so we compared notes again all with jokes and some laughs as we ate lunch and caught up with each other's events that had been happening in our lives, he with his wife, children and grandchildren whom he always spoke so lovingly, with such warmth and pride. It was a privilege for me to have known Carl, he was just such a good man and a good soul! Again, my deepest condolences to Carl's family and friends.

“ I think everyone who met Uncle Carl was in awe of him. He was so vivacious and kind. His photographs were great his attention to detail amazing. My last memory of him was at Mom and Dads anniversary when he walked through the screen door nobody skipped a beatthat was Uncle Carl. His smile will go on forever and tonight I will fold an Origami crane for him My heart goes out to you Aunt Linda
Love your niece
