“ Carleen was the sweetest, most loving and fun woman! My memeries are of love and delight every time I was with her! She would stuff my heart with love and my stomach with home cooked food! She was like my second mom truly! My heart sends love and hugs to David and family! She was an amazing woman! Her spirit the color of her hair! 50 some years of laughing and knowing one of the sweetest woman in my life time. She will be so missed!

“ When I was a teenager I came to visit. We went out to eat and I was sitting by Aunt Carlene. I looked at her hand and was like, “Hey, we have the same hands! “. Aunt Carlene smiled really big, held my hand and looked at it and said, “We sure do “ it meant a lot to me that my aunt and I shared something together. May she rest in peace I know I will see her again one day.
