“ Carol and I connected thru our research on the Frick Family. We had talked a few times & she was so nice. I am truly sorry that she passed without us being able to schedule a visit.

“ I enjoyed knowing Carol for many years as fellow faculty members at the University of Northern Iowa. She was smart, thoughtful, considerate, and had a great deal of common sense. She had a strong devotion to the history of her field of study. She also always had good stories to tell. I valued that. And I valued our friendship. I will miss her.
