“ Carolyn will be missed by many. She was a wonderful friend. We enjoyed her company and dedication to Senior Citizens organization. She traveled many miles with me when I was director of the Heritage Club trips through the Iowa Savings Bank. We were so sorry to hear of her sudden passing, but know that she is in the arms of the Lord now. Our condolences to her extended family. We will remember her with a donation to Cedar Valley Hospice in her memory. Dick and Nancy Woodley
