“ Carrie was a very special lady to my folks. She helped Mom and Dad after my twin Brother and I was born. Was a jewel and a very hard and loving person loved by so many. So glad I got to see her at Randy's party even though sure she didn't remember me. Deepest Sympathy yo you all and Hugs. PRAYERS

“ Carrie was the exemplary neighbor and friend! She provided meals, comfort and friendship to all of us during our Mother's final months and afterwards to us. We are eternally grateful for her caring. And from what I recall, she was the sister and aunt that cared for any family member when assistance was needed. She was one of the most diligent workers ever, never resting, that I am aware! Her hamburgers at the tavern are still the best ever. She was a star. Rest In Peace Carrie, you deserve it. Sincerely, James, Richard and John Damron
