

Christine Comeau

April 28, 1915 - December 27, 2015

Christine Dubois Comeau died at 100 years old on Dec. 27. She was born April 28, 1915, in Ste. Sylvere, Quebec, Canada. She married Adrien Comeau Nov. 19, 1949, in Montreal. The two moved to Massena, New York, where they raised six children. Adrien grew a garden, and Christine cooked with his harvest. Family and friends remember Christine's rhubarb cake. The couple loved God and remained lifelong members of the Catholic Church. Adrien died in 1999. Christine spent the end of her life at the Western Home Communities in Cedar Falls, Iowa. She has 19 grandchildren, one great-grandchild and another on the way.

No services will be held locally.

“ Please accept our sincere condolences. May the words quoted from this song bring you a measure of comfort as it did for us.
"If a man or woman should die, can they live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand "(Job 14:13-15)
