“ My deceased mother, Lorraine Strong, worked for Clarence Roskamp for over one year, before our move to Urbandale in June of 1967. Mom spoke nicely of Clarence, and his father, John Roskamp. Mom enjoyed working for Clarence. He was a kind fella. This comment comes rather late. Even so, better late than never. Letters often came to their office, starting with ":Dear Mr. Huller". That is when the company was called Roskamp Huller Manufacturing Company. Have a blessed day!
