I am so sorry for Craig's passing. He use to be my Uncle by marriage. But I have always considered him family. I remember when I was a kid we use to go fishing and hunting all the time. He loved the outdoors. He will be missed. Bob Kastli

Kristi, Karen, Shelly, and Joey: I know how much you loved Craig and that you will miss him dearly. I only met Craig once, but feel I knew him fairly well. He was a gentle giant in my eyes, and I know he rests at peace with love surrounding him. He will not be forgotten. God bless all of you who were close to Craig.

We had so much fun with Craig when we were all kids growing up in the Lincoln/Grant St. area! He was like part of our family. The memories I have of him are all good ones because he was such a cool guy to be around. He rarely got angry and I don't remember ever hearing him say anything bad about anyone. He loved his kids dearly!! He will certainly be missed by his family and friends. May you rest in peace, Craig.
