“ I miss my brother dan so much. Although it's been 15 years it's seems like yesterday that he always had my back. Trying to keep me out of trouble I said keep, well let's just say he tried. As the years went by knowing he was sick ,I called him everyday sometimes I could tell he didn't feel like talking and I would tell him how much I love him. The world seemed to stop the day he was called home. Now I am just shy of 70 older than he ever got to be. He deserved to go on living His family was everything to him. I have said all I can say I can still hear his voice I love you dan
