“ David loved his bikes "Hogg" I can remember him riding this very bike in the snow it was his only transportation. It is nothing to see him in his leathers and boots with his Harley hat. He would tell you never ever Ride with out boots on and jeans /leathers. It was okay for me it sit on his bike with flip flops but you never Ride wearing flip flops.

Rhonda Peck-Rumley - December 01, 2018 at 11:57 AM

I remember also asking him several time if I could have it and he would tell me when I get bigger and wiser. Now I think about he was still a big "Kid" at heart just like my dad Ride with the wind in your face except for the bugs in the summer time and rain storms. And in the snow watch for icy patches and big snow drifts.

“ I remember David showing up at Grandma Nina's house with a few of his motorcycle buddies and causing her neighbors to get flustered and calling her to see if she was okay...lol. Grandma loved telling everyone it was David and that he had come to visit...he always had an ornery smile, he told me once if you smile all the time Sheila no one knows if you did something or not.

I also remember his great love for motorcycles. I will miss him and his big bike.

God Bless.
