“ Debbie was the first friend I made when I moved to Cedar Falls from Texas, and she became one of my closest and most-trusted. I hadn't seen her for years until we met up last year when I was back in Cedar Falls, where I also met Terry. I'm more grateful than ever for that visit now. I was so sorry to hear of her passing. Her life was much too short, but she lived it well and made a lot of people happy.

I know that whatever God brings me to He will bring me through. And you can make it through this as you have made it through other difficult times in your life together. Know that others thoughts and prayers are with you in this journey.
