“ Julie -- So sorry to read you have lost your brother. Think of you often and the many trying times God has given you. You are an extremely strong woman and so good to all you know and the strangers you meet along the way. I have faith you will overcome your grief and loss once again, and have faith that Our Heavenly Father has wonderful plans for a beautiful afterlife for your brother as he has had for Dan and so many others who have been an imporant part of your life. My love, Janet Liming

“ We are sorry to hear about your loss. My son and I delivered papers to you for a couple years. Dennis was a very nice man, always polite. He was one of the few that I looked forward to seeing sitting outside when we brought the paper. He will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
Stay strong,
Amy and Adam Warnke
