

Dixie Hart

November 17, 1918 - October 31, 2011

Dixie Mae Hart (1918-2011)

Dixie Mae Hart, 92, of Cedar Falls, Iowa died Monday, October 31, 2011 at the Cedar Valley Hospice Home in Waterloo. She was the daughter of Nathaniel & Lilia Maude (Harrington) Foulk of Sioux City, Iowa. She graduated from Central High School and Midwest College. She Married Kenneth Hart on October 14, 1995. He died September 3, 2009.

Mrs. Hart owned and operated Hummel's Smoke Shop in Waterloo for many years. Teaching and directing duplicate bridge was her passion. She was the first woman from Iowa to be inducted into the Bridge Hall of Fame. Her greatest pleasure, outside of her children and grandchildren, was being on the National Charity Board of the American Contract Bridge League (ACBL) which raised millions of dollars for national and local charities. She became a Life Master of the ACBL in 3 years and made her 12th Life Master shortly before her death. She was a member of Cedar Valley Community Church.

Survivors: Two sons, Ronald (Jo Ann) Bourret of Lake Mary, FL and Brent (Maureen) Hastings of Cedar Falls; a son-in-law, Brian Perry of Marion; grandchildren: Scott (Kathy) Bourret of Stuart, FL, Michelle Bourret of Minneapolis, MN, Alexandra (Tyler) Hunt of Alpharetta, GA, Roman Bourret of Alpharetta, GA, Alec Bourret of Orlando, FL, Valaria and Ricky Bourret of Stuart, FL, Stacy (Jon) Dorsey of Corona, CA, Shelly (Brock) Ackerman of Sioux City, IA, Dr. Christopher (Deliah) Perry of Toledo, OH, Dr. Blake (Shannon) Perry of Mt. Vernon, WA, Tasha (Justin) Irving of Minneapolis, MN, Wade (Ola) Hastings of Chicago, IL, and Calvin Hastings of Waterloo, IA; Twenty-five great grandchildren and seven great-great grandchildren.

Preceded in death by a son, Richard Bourret and a daughter, Robin Perry and a grandson, Luke Patterson.

Family directed memorial services will be held 10:00 a.m. Thursday, November 3, at Cedar Valley Community Church, Waterloo.

Memorials may be sent to Cedar Valley Hospice Home, 2001 Kimball Ave., Waterloo, IA 50702.