“ there are too many memories to share, my favorites are collecting fireflies in their back yard, watching solid gold which her and grandpa would talk through, but ask for complete silence during the commercials, sleeping on the giant feather tic when we stayed the night, and wake up to the smell of breakfast cooking out of her favorite cast iron skillet. her collections were always entertaining, i'm not sure which she loved more, the shoes, the costume jewelry, the hummels, most likely it was her purses, visiting at the home i'd come in and she would be asleep to the shopping networks purses program on, covered in her blanket with purses, and when she woke up, she would talk about her purse or one she saw that she loved and just had to have. She was an amazing woman, she was loved by many and will be missed by many, I'm glad my husband got to know her, We will miss her.

Our sympathy to you Janice and family. I remember your Mother as a gracious and patient lady. You would have teen parties in your parents basement and a good time was had by all! Peace Be With You All. Dick and Jane (Royer) Mayer
