“ My sincere sympathy to the family of Don. I worked with Don for many years in the 80s. He was absolutely wonderful to work with and I remember going to his wedding. I lost track of him after he retired but I'm glad to see Don and Phyllis had a long retirement. Great people. I hope you have great memories.

“ Uncle Don and my dad (his older brother) lived with their mother in a residential hotel for several months when they were growing up back in Moline, Illinois. They would probably have lived there longer had they not hatched the bright idea to drop water balloons from their eighth story room to the sidewalk below.

The hotel was a busy place, housing a restaurant, a barber and other amenities. People were in and out all day long. Of course, the sidewalk just happened to be right in front of the main entrance to the hotel. Apparently, the boys had excellent aim. They were asked to leave.

That's just one of the many stories I heard about the brothers over the years. Now they are together again. Maybe someone should alert Heaven.
