“ Please know you have been in our thoughts and prayers through this difficult journey. We know how hard it is to say good bye to someone so special. Don had such a calm, gentle and loving soul and we know how much he will be sorely missed by many. He is now without discomfort and in our father's arms. Love to you all and we will continue to keep you in our prayers.

“ Jeanne, my sincere condolences to you and your families. I always admired you in church with a smile on your face and always looking so beautiful during Don's illness. I am sure God held your hand for many times going through the death of Don. He is at peace and now God will comfort you during these days ahead. If there is anything I can do, please don't hesitate to let me know.

*May God give Don eternal rest.
God Bless You Jeanne.*

“ Dear Brenda, and family, I just wanted to wish you love and send my deepest sympathies for the loss of your dad/loved one. He was far too young and from what I hear, very very "special". I so enjoyed listenig to you describe him and his kind wise spirit. That is how he now lives on in all of you and those he has touched. Let everyone be there for you. We want to. My prayers are with you and your family. Brenda, I wish I could give you one of your "Brenda hugs" right now, you'll have to close your eyes and pretend. Much love,abby

“ Jeanne, Kim, Gayle and Brenda,
We are thinking of you. Wish we could get there sooner. We'll be there tomorrow for the visitation. We know Don is a good husband, father, son-in-law, brother and brother-in-law. He will be missed. I can see him in heaven now, greeting Caitlin for us. I hope they have a nice banquet with all of their friends, with Jesus at the head of the table saying the prayer. We Love You all so much.

“ My husband and I would like to convey our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of your beloved Kenneth. We would like to share with you something that has brought us much comfort at a similar time in our lives. John 11:14-44 shares with us the experience of Jesus resurrecting Lazarus here on earth before the very eyes of those he loved. We can only imagine the tears of joy when we too are reunited with our dear loved ones. (John 5:28,29) Kenneth will surely be missed by many of those who's lives he shared, remember the experiences you shared together and learn from them, hold them close to your heart and cherish them. May you find comfort from those who surround you at this very difficult time. Our sincere condolences to all of you.
