“ Mr Meier was like a second father to me when I was younger and running around with Karen and Kathy. I will always hold dear the memories when we would go to Pine Lake camping for the week and I was just another kid in the family. Much love, prayers and hugs for the family. Jeri

For many years Don was our mail carrier on Rownd Street. He always had a smile and went out of his way to deliver the mail. He was a true gentleman.
