

Donald Sinclair

Don was born August 15, 1914, in Emmett, Idaho, the son of Alan Luther and Emma Lizetta (Brimmer) Sinclair. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Yankton College in Yankton, SD. He served his in the United States Navy during World War II. On March 31, 1950, he was united in marriage to Margauret Loveland in Janesville, IA. He was a sales representative with International Paper Co. in Cedar Rapids from 1946-1962, then sales in Custom Cabinets from 1962-1964, then sales at Rock Island Millworks from 1964-1969, Forest City Millworks from 1969-1972, and finally worked for Winnebago Motor Homes in delivery from 1972-1981.

Don is survived by his wife, Margauret of Cedar Falls; daughter, Cora Sinclair of Sioux City; three sons, Nathan Sinclair of San Francisco, CA, Rod Sinclair of Cedar Falls and Ed (Lisa) Sinclair of Appleton, WI; and grandson, Samuel D. Sinclair of Appleton, WI.

Don died Thursday, June 5, 2003, at Sartori Memorial Hospital in Cedar Falls. He was preceded in death by his parents and fourteen brothers and sisters.