“ My Aunt Doreen was a special person, larger than life. She valued education and thinking for yourself highly, and left a lasting impression of this with whomever she touched. Always great to get advice from, and a loving person with deep feelings and values. My favorite aunt is what I always called her, and it was the truth. I miss her, but she's gone on to a better place with no pain, and I hope someday to meet her again. I miss you Auntie Do.
