“ Hi Carole! So sorry for your loss of Duane! Janet Schildroth said she came to St. Gabriel's to see you. She contacted me recently, haven't seen her for year's, and told me about seeing you. I can't find your current address. Sent a note to a New Hartford address but it was returned. I know it has been over sixty year's we have seen each other! Wish we could get together once again. We live at 2254 County Road A14, Decorah, Iowa. Hope you or one of family happens to see this note! Sincerely, Joanne Wyatt Witt

“ RIP Uncle Duane. Good memories of times when we would spend time at his home riding snow mobiles in the winter and riding horses in the summer. He always had a smile when you saw him.

“ I have many good memories of uncle Duane through the years. He seemed a very unassuming man and happy to share a smile. My most recent memory is when my daughter, Amara and Duane and Carol's granddaughter, Sadie were opponents in college volleyball and we got to share some fun games together. Rest in peace Uncle Duane.
