“ We shared many visits with Earl and Retha when we were younger. He and my Dad, Ernest Brinkman, were pretty close. Frequently Earl would visit Mom and Dad. Even after my Father passed away in 1980 Earl would continue to stop by to visit with Mom. Earl also would drive by my house and if he saw me outside he would stop and we would talk. Annette, I am sorry for your loss. I called the funeral home twice but they said it was a private service. I tried his telephone number but it was disconnected. Lola
