“ It has been almost four years since my good friend Elizabeth better known as Buffy left us, I still miss her and think about her everyday and wish she was still here but then I think she is in no more pain atleast. Buffy I miss you terribly and I miss having you to talk to but I will see you again one day and I will fill you in on all the gossip and everything that has been going on until that day I love you and miss you and think about you often!

“ My friend passed away today, yet the sun still came up and the birds still are chirping , the clouds are still moving in the sky and the world is for the most part still turning, Elizabeth was her name but almost almost all who knew her called her "Buffy", she was a true one of a kind , she was a mom , and a grandmother, a self proclaimed pptomstr, she wife , girlfriend, and daughter, her kindness was great and like a giant magnet that drew so many to her , but nobody was to confuse it for a weakness, for she was one of the strongest people I have ever met, now with her passing she is missed and gone physicaly from our every day lives but never will she be forgotten. My life is infinitely better for having met and known her yet with Buffy not in this world its smaller and a lessor of a place, So even though I am crying right now I am not gonna mourn her cuz she wouldnt have wanted that from any of us or anyone so my morning will be done once i finish this letter/text. In closing i say this I will miss u Buffy I luv u, and thank you for all u did for me and others, especially thepeanut butter, ha! , I am leaving a lite on for u , look in on us all u hav left behind and walk slow n ur travels give a chance to catch up to you
