“ Kathy & Steve, my brother Bill and I played together with you when we all lived in 'The Apartments' when we were young! Your mom and dad, and my mom and dad, were working so hard building a life, the College, the community. Where did all the years go? I live in England, but talked with your mom about you when I travelled back for the funeral of my dad (Willis Wagner) nine years ago. I was sorry not to see you, but saw your photos in your mother's home. Your mom was so proud of her many-generations family. Today, ... I was thinking about her while I did housework, not knowing she had gone. I stopped, found the obituaries and said, 'Yes, in gladness, we remember her life.' She was a great friend to my mom, Hazel. I'm pleased they had each other. Bless your memories of your mother. Janet (Wagner) Parsons - in Cambridgeshire, UK.

“ Strangely, I began thinking about Elnora yesterday. I have not seen her in many years but we enjoyed working together for a number of years with John Ketter and Alice Arnold, and others. I decided to "Google" her and discovered she had just passed away. I am so sorry and send my sincere condolences to Steve, Kathy and other family members. We had a really great work team, and I was very fond of her. She was on my mind.

“ Growing up, our parents were friends, as well as neighbors. We have many wonderful memories of your Mother. We had picnics at Black Hawk Park and of course, our Easter Egg Hunts...where we wore our Halloween costumes. Pleas know that you are in our prayers, "the Paulson Girls"
