

Frink Sofia

March 23, 2007

Sofia D. Frink (1922-2007)

CEDAR FALLS-Sofia "Sof" Demetrakos Frink, 84, of Fort Collins, Colorado, formerly of Cedar Falls, died Friday, March 23rd in Fort Collins, Colorado, of a lengthy illness. She was born May 5, 1922 in Mortmar Village, California, daughter of Constantine and Petra Corona Demetrakos. She married Maurice Frederick Frink, August 7, 1940 at the Little Brown Church in Nashua, Iowa. The marriage later dissolved. She was employed by Rath Packing Company for a short while when she first arrived in Iowa. She then became a mother and homemaker. She enjoyed a short period of employment at Rainbow Florists and Greenhouses before retirement.

Survived by: her daughters, Cathy (Ira) Kimm of Cedar Falls and Tammy (David) Thornton of Fort Collins, Colorado; seven grandchildren; one grandchild-in-law, one great-grandchild; three step great-grandchildren; two sisters, Helen (Bill-deceased) Smith, and Christina Metz; one brother, George (Jane) Demetrakos; and one sister-in-law, Beverly Demetrakos, all of Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Preceded in death by: a son, Gregory Warren Frink of Cedar Falls; two brothers, Nickolas Demetrakos of Klamath Falls, Oregon, and James Demetrakos of Costa Mesa, California; a sister and brother-in-law, Mary and Eugene Oldham also of Klamath Falls; and four nephews.

Services: 11 a.m. Saturday at Richardson Funeral Home, with burial in Fairview Cemetery, both in Cedar Falls. Public visitation will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday at Richardson Funeral Home. Public visitation also for one hour prior to services Saturday.

Memorials may be directed to Larimer County Hospice, Fort Collins, Colorado, or Cedar Heights Presbyterian Church, Cedar Falls.