

Genevieve Siler

Genevieve was born May 18, 1914, in Bremer County, Iowa, the daughter of Walter A. and Bessie G. (Shores) Tanner. She attended Iowa State Teachers College (UNI) for one year. On October 27, 1934, she was united in marriage to Leonard Laverne Siler in Elgin, IA. He died January 4, 1996. She was a member at Linden United Methodist Church.

Genevieve is survived by two daughters, Marlys J. (Edward) Smith of Hudson and Marilyn K. (Dennis) Gaede of Cedar Falls, two sons, Rev. Merrill L. (Claudia) Siler and Marvin P. (Judith) Siler, all of Waterloo; ten grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; sister, Joyce Clemens of Dumont, IA and brother, Richard Tanner of Eugene, OR.

Genevieve died Wednesday, December 17, 2003, at Ravenwood Nursing and Rehab Center in Waterloo. She was preceded in death by her parents, sisters, Doris Vahrenwald and Madge Moore and brother, Francis Tanner.